

Dear colleagues:

This is the prefinal announcement of ABC2008, the 2nd FEBS Special Meeting on ABC Proteins. ABC2008 will take place in Innsbruck, Austria, from March 1-8, 2007.

The registration deadline for ABC2008 on December 15, 2007 is just three days away. Please visit www.febs-abc2008.org to gather details on the exciting programme and to register for the meeting.

ABC2008 offers some 60 fellowships and travel grants for students and postdoctoral fellows working in any of the FEBS/FEMS constituent countries, including fellowships for students from North America/Canada and Asia. Please check back at the ABC2008 website for detailed information.

The Austrian airlines group serves as the official air travel carrier, offering booking of airfares to Innsbruck at a 15%-discounted rate. Booking codes will be e-mailed to accepted participants.

Please do not hesitate to contact the meeting office mail (info@febs-abc2008.org) in case you have any questions or should you encounter any difficulties with the registration.

We look forward to hosting you in Innsbruck in March 2008.
