

Information Science and Social Media – International Conference
August 24-26.2011, Åbo/Turku, Finland

The first ISSOME conference addresses new modes of information behavior in different contexts focusing the effects of social media and technologies in the interactive web.

The conference is open to researchers, academics and practitioners in the fields of library and information science and social media, as well as businesses and organizations developing social media strategies.

Keynotes

Professor Alf Rehn - Business thinker, writer and speaker - Professor of management and organization, School of Business and Economics, Åbo Akademi University

Professor Carol Tenopir Professor at the School of Information Sciences, University of Tennessee, Knoxville Director of Research, College of Communication and Information Director of the Center for Information and Communication Studies

Dr Hazel Hall Director, Centre for Social Informatics, School of Computing, Edinburgh Napier University She is also leads the implementation of the UK Library and Information Science Research Coalition.

Conference fees:

Student 90€

Early bird 120€ (for registration before June 27)

Regular 150€ (for registration after June 27)

All conference fees include conference program, coffee breaks during the conference, and the conference banquet.

More information about the conference: <http://issome2011.library2pointoh.fi/>